Artificial Sports Surfaces

The huge expansion in leisure activities and facilities has spurred on Northstone's work on artificial sports surfaces and all weather pitches.

Artificial playing surfaces provide all-weather playing conditions and are constructed to high tolerances on open textured bitumen macadam using in-situ shockpads.

Associated with international leaders in the manufacture and construction of artificial grass courts, Northstone have set the standard for installation of modern sand and water based carpets.

NORTHSTONE

QUARRY & ASPHALT DIVISION

We offer several types of synthetic grass, each designed for a particular application and each offering many advantages both from an economic and technical point of view. These unique yarns are not only environmentally and player friendly, but combine intensive playability with a minimum of maintenance and excellent durability, giving greater long-term value.

Specially designed surface systems are available for tennis, hockey, football and multi-sport activities.
